TRAIL OF PRISONERS

On the Petit Jury being sworn, the learned Chairman handed to the foreman a letter alluded to in his charge to the Grand Jury, intimating that three letters, all of similar character, had been received by the bailiff, who had very properly given them up to the Court

The first prisoner placed at the bar was John Eaton, aged 31, who pleaded Guilty to having on the 3rd of June, at the parish of Repton, feloniously stolen four ewe sheep, the property of William Dawson.

Several highly respectable witnesses gave the prisoner an excellent character, and Mr Boden, on the part of the prosecutor, recommend him to mercy.. To be transported for 10 years.

John was given a conditional pardon in 1851 and promptly does a bunk never to be heard of again. The VDL Comptroller of Convicts has an ad in the Tassie papers in 1856 asking the public to inform him of the whereabouts of about fifty pardoned convicts including John Eaton. He could of course have changed his name and nicked across to Victoria which a lot did so there is really no hope of finding him.
